

Please do not rush a vote on corporate consolidation of airwaves. We need more diversity and public access. Consolidation will further deteriorate quality and variety. This issue requires careful study and public input. Most people don't even know about your upcoming vote. Postpone the June 2 vote, and publicize the issue, and get information from those outside the world of big corporations.